

From: Prof. Ibrokhim Abdurakhmonov, TWAS Fellow
Minister of Innovative Development, Uzbekistan

Dear Colleagues:

This news gave a great sadness this morning to all of us. Indeed, the sudden death of Prof. Hualiang Jiang is a great loss for the world science community. Please accept and pass our deepest sadness and condolences to all people of the Chinese scientific community, his family and relatives and friends.

We will pray for the peace of his soul, and may God award him with a place in Heaven. Amin.
